The Swan to the Black Bear

Distance - 3.2miles
Approximate Time - 1hour 15minutes
Includes stiles, roads and livestock

1. Park at The Swan and walk across the road and up to Marbury Church. Go through the stile and follow the path down towards the woodland.
2. Cross over the stiles and through the woodland and bear left across this field towards the stile in the top left corner - this can be waterlogged so be careful!
3. Across the stile bear diagonally towards the mid-left of the field and find the stile. Head straight across the field. Over next stile bear right up to the top of the field.
4. Follow footpath arrows over the stile, across the field and over the next - don't forget to look back at the stunning views!
5. Follow the sign for Whitchurch across the field and down, you should be able to see the caravan park directly ahead. Follow footpath stiles in fields and bear right along the caravan park; there is a small stile to the far right of the park.
6. Through the stile, you will come out on Mile Bank Rd. Turn right and walk along this road for roughly 20 minutes until you come to the crossroads. Head straight across the road. At the next junction turn right.
7. The Black Bear should be on your right. Stop and enjoy a nice cold pint!

Distance - 4.7miles
Approximate Time - 2hours
Includes stiles, roads and livestock

1. Begin at The Swan and take the Whitchurch road. Continue along this road (Hollins Lane) for roughly ten minutes until you reach the second stile on your left.
2. Go over the stile and continue through the field following the path and heading towards the railway line. Cross the line (stop, look and listen) and continue following the public footpath signs forward until you reach Hollyhurst road.
3. Turn left, and continue walking along the road for roughly ten minutes until you reach the first stile to your right. Take this and continue upwards towards the monument. Stop and enjoy the views.
4. From the monument, facing back to where you just came from, turn left and walk towards the woodland area. Go through the stile and woodland and come out on Ossmere Lane.
5. Turn left and walk along Ossmere Lane, and veer right with the road. Continue walking along the road until you reach the Give Way sign.
6. Turn right and continue along the road for roughly ten minutes or until you reach a dirt track to your left with a number of white cottages (Health Ln).
7. Follow the dirt track road (so the houses are to your left) and continue to the end where you will reach a stile and turn right.
8. Follow the path through the field and continue through the gate and through the next field. When you reach the end, climb the stile to your left and follow the hill down.
9. Bear right as you walk downwards and through the stile on your right. Go through this field (can be waterlogged), and towards the back right corner- you should be able to see Marbury Mere and the Church.
10. Follow the stiles through the woodland and up the field towards the church. Cross the road and finish at the pub with a well-deserved lunch!
